Continuation of 4(e) Other:

Applicant has in formally inserted and changed letters, such as "(b)", labeling various steps in their independent claims 1, 6 & 10, i.e. use neither double brackets for their deletions, nor underlining to add them.

It is noted that this creates a further complication where references to a particular step was not updated for the informally changed label, which while not a matter of noncompliance with amendment practice, may create new matter problems & is probably not what was intended by applicant. Particularly see reference to step (c) in what is now labeled as "(e)" in claim 1, or steps (d) in claims 4, 5 or 6(f). Further proofreading for correct or updated use of these labels is recommended.

It is further noted that at the new end of claim 1, applicants both delete & adds a ".", which may also be considered noncompliant.

Also, while the double strike through is considerably more visible than the single strike through, the formal requirement for single deletions or deletions of sequences of 5 or less words, is now the use of double brackets, [[]], such as applicants employed in claims 8-9 & 11-12, but not in other instances where it was called for, such as at the end of claim 1, where it might have avoided the problem with the period.
